We're Celebrating VE Day 75!

Today, has been designated a special bank holiday, to remember the events of VE Day, 75 years ago. This was when Nazi Germany formally surrendered at the end of the Second World War.

On VE (Victory in Europe) Day in 1945, millions took to the streets to celebrate peace after years of devastating war.

We are being asked to undertake the 'Nation's Toast to the Heroes of WW2' at 3pm today, from the safety of our own homes by standing up and raise a glass or a cuppa of refreshment of our choice and undertake the following 'Toast' - "To those who gave so much, we thank you," using this unique opportunity to pay tribute to the many millions at home and abroad that gave so much.

The children of St Bernadette's salute you Colonel Tom!
And all those of your generation, who showed such sacrifice.
We love you! Stay safe!

Home Learning In Action!

Kacper and Maya have continued to attend home cookery school. They are getting really good!

Lovely!!

I've heard about animals returning to the cities, just now! If this includes, wolves, Kacper is all set with the trap he has made.

Isabella and George are set a lego challenge* by their grandparents each week. They find them on the doorstep!

Look out Gregg's! Isaac has been busy baking his own sausage rolls. They look yummy, Isaac! Well done!

Maggie and Joe have been busy preparing tributes to Captain Tom. Very apt for our VE Day 75 special issue of the blog!

After doing her home learning each day, Josie tries to cycle a mile. Might be easier if you use the pedals, Josie! (Only joking!)

Oscar's butterflies emerged from their chrysalides and he set them free. He also built a den in a shoe box for a Beavers challenge. Oscar and George camped out in the garden, it was great fun and they learned how to put up a tent!*

They broke the record for the largest camp in the world ever! Guides chose to theme their camps. Here's Katie in her Hawaiian island

Freya and Cameron have been enjoying dance classes online. They love to see their teacher and friends from dance school.

Star Wars fans Alfie and Gracie celebrated "may the fourth be with you" day on Monday. Cool photos!!

Kim is working really hard and doing a fantastic job, learning her phonics! Well done, Kim! (I'd like to add "oresome" but it wouldn't work!!)

Alice is very proud of her M&S "Little Garden" collection, which have finally all germinated. Monty Donn would be delighted for you. As are we!!

Josie is making sure she keeps up good communication! She made a tin can speaker phone system. Well done, Josie!*

Last week, some classes in school took part in North Tyneside's Sumdog Online Maths competition. Over 300 pupils played altogether and we're delighted to announce that we had 3 pupils place in the top 10 overall. Congratulations to Joseph (y5) who came 10th and Ewan (y6) who came 2nd! A huge well done to Harry (y5) who came first overall, scoring 993/1000!

If you're interested in entering* the next competition, ask your teacher for your login details.

Domestic abuse – Where to get help during the Covid-19 pandemic

For 2 million victims of domestic abuse, home may not be the safe place it should be.

We can help and support you if you are experiencing domestic abuse, you can contact Northumbria Police by telephone on 101, or online via www.northumbria.police.uk

However in an emergency, always call 999. If you dial 999 and are unable to speak, the emergency operator will ask you to dial 55 and to follow their instruction to quickly put you in touch with Police.

Prayer for the Week

Prayer for protection from Coronavirus

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas - we who are put to the test - and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Holey Toast Winner

I spy, Jude!!
