PTA Christmas Fair

Bernadette's Blog

Thank you to everyone who came out to support our wonderful PTA at our Christmas Fair last Friday.

It was a real success-raising

£1,700!

Lots of fun was had by all!
All the raffle prizes have now been claimed-a full list of winners is available in the school office.

(If you were lucky enough to win one of the three hampers-please can we ask that you return the basket-so it can be used again!)

We still have lots of the Christmas Button Craft canvases here. It is not too late to purchase your child's at a cost of £2.50

Special thanks, as always, must go to Alison and her team who did such a fantastic job in organising, setting up and clearing away.

We so appreciate all their hard work.

You are all amazing!

PIC-COLLAGE

Our KS1 Nativity

Mrs Walker, Miss Rogers and Miss Jones were chuffed with the efforts of our KS 1 children this week.

They put on not one, but two performances of "Lights, Camel, Action!"

It felt like Strictly and X Factor combined!

A lively time was had by all!

As they sang and danced their hearts out.

Cheers and boos echoing around the hall as they retold the story of Jesus' birth in a unique way.

Fab-u-lous!!

It was lovely to see so many parents and grandparents in the audience.

Reception Visit to Santa's Grotto

On Tuesday morning our Reception Class climbed into their wellies, put on their hats, gloves and scarves and set off in the snowy sunshine to walk up to the Rising Sun Grotto...to see SANTA!! It was a magical visit-walking through the winter wonderland of the Rising Sun Country Park.

When they arrived there were lots of lovely activities for them all to take part in-as well as meeting Father Christmas!

A fabulous time was had by all. Many thanks to the sixteen parents and grandparents who helped accompany the children.

We were glad to hear that you enjoyed the outing as much as the children did!

Early Year's Visit from Santa's Elf

On Wednesday our Nursery (pm) and Reception Classes had a very special visit from HersElf-one of Santa's elves. She put aside time in her busy schedule and came from Winter Wonderland to visit the children in their classrooms. She told them all about Santa's Workshop and they told her all about our Advent Gifts of Hope. HersElf was very impressed and even took some bracelets away for some sick children that she was going to visit.

On Wednesday, the children in Miss Kincaid's class had a special treat. Lucia brought in traditional gingerbread treats to celebrate St. Lucia's feast day. They were yummy! Thank you, Lucia!

Our Hope Project Update!

Our Advent Hope Project continues to thrive.

The facebook site is a hive of activity.

More bracelets will be taken home this weekend by some children.

We thought this week, we would share just two of the lovely responses we have received.

Dear St Bernadette's

Milo who's my Grandson gave me GoH letter and present on Saturday because he knows I work away and thought it would cheer me up a bit. As it happens I took with me on my return to work in Switzerland and after a very tiring and tedious journey, with a very early start, I found myself on Monday in a very cold and gloomy railway station in Basel, not the sort of scene they put on a box of biscuits, I remembered I'd brought the envelope so I took it out the letter and re-read it and it did indeed lift my spirits.

Not only that, out of four guys travelling back to the site that day I was the only one who made it, the others were held up by bad weather, one made it in as late as yesterday.

I have an idea that someone was keeping an eye on me that day and the GoH had something to do with it.

Thank you for organising it, Milo and Honey have got an immense amount out of it, more than you can imagine and so have his parents and Sheila and I so thanks again.

The very best wishes for Christmas.

Frank Conway

Hello my name is Peter Jones, I am a Deacon in the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle, based at St. Aloysious and St. James parish in Hebburn and the catholic chaplain at the Queen Elizabeth hospital in Gateshead.

I found your Gift of Hope card and the lovely bracelet made by Aaron one of your pupils in the Chapel at the Q.E.hospital

The words and the sentiments on the card and on the sheet explaining what you are doing are great and really gave me hope for the future.

Please thank all the children for what they are doing and thank especially Aaron on my behalf.

You are obviously doing great work across the river in Wallsend!

This coming Sunday is Gaudete Sunday and I will be using the card and the gift in my sermon at our Masses to highlight the joy and the hope that you are witnessing.

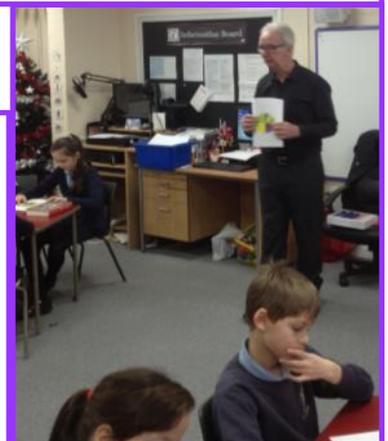

Thank you once again,

Peter

A Visit from Fr John

Father John came to visit Lower Key Stage 2 this week. He talked to us all about Advent and how the church is different during this special time of preparation.

We were really pleased Father could spend some time with us.

Our Travelling Cribs

Phoebe enjoyed setting up the nativity scene, when she took the travelling crib home at the weekend.

Here is Ruby, with her little brother Olly, learning about the story of baby Jesus with the help of the travelling crib.

Here is Ava. She enjoyed setting up the Travelling Crib in front of her Christmas tree at home.

Megan enjoyed taking the travelling crib home with her, to share with her family.

Josie said her prayers while she was busy with the travelling crib.

Special Delivery

Mollie had a special delivery this week. A letter from Santa. It says she is on the Nice List, this year. Thank goodness!!

Safety First!

Please, please can you stick to the pathways nearest school, that are gritted in this icy weather. Barriers are put up to stop you walking across the MUGA where it can be very slippery.

Thank you!
